

Request for Transfer of Certification Credentials to Massachusetts (MCH)

MCH Reciprocity (single* state certification): Any individual can apply to have their current certification credential from another state transferred to MCH. Applications will be reviewed by the MCH Board of Directors (the certifying body for the Massachusetts Nursery and Landscape Association) and upon approval and notification, the new MCH will be responsible for maintaining their “good standing” status including staying current with all fees and continuing education requirements dictated by the MCH Program. certified individuals who are moving to Massachusetts.*

MCH Reciprocity (multiple state certifications): Any individual can apply to have their current certification credential from another state transferred to a MCH. Applications will be reviewed by the MCH Board of Directors (the certifying body for the Massachusetts Nursery and Landscape Association) and upon approval and notification, the new MCH will be responsible for maintaining their “good standing” status including staying current with all fees and continuing education requirements dictated by the MCH Program and the Certifying Body for the state association(s) where they currently hold Certification Credentials. certified individuals who are looking to hold their original certification as well as MCH certification.*
